MILLIONS OF SUGAR STOCK.

TRUST MEMORIES ACUTELY REVIVED.

THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE AMERICAN REFIN-ING COMPANY AUTHORIZE AN INCREASE OF

PIFTY PER CENT IN CAPITALIZATION. Wall Street has no direct interest in the Guttenburg be defied at times in New-Jersey. The general sentiment in Wall Street when the increase of $25,000,000 in the capital of the American Sugar Refining Company was announced yesterday was that even Guttenburg "cheek" had been surpassed. Not that the action of the stockholders was a clear violation of law; oh, no! all the proper forms were observed, but the principle of all the proper forms may be a superserved. The news of the increase in the stock gave a chill to the stock market, and, while Sugar stock tumbled the most, the effect was hurtful to legitimate confidence. The proposition to add more water to the Sugar Company comes after an existence of the corporation of only one year from January 10, 1891. For a young company, already carrying a capitalization of $50,000,000 stock, with $10,000.00 G per cent bonds, which, according to the statement of the treasurer, have been issued but not disposed of, it is a stroke of Napoleonic genius to increase the capital 50 per cent. The action of the stockholders yesterday aroused memories of the times when a "trust" was the form of the present combination in the sugar trade. The antics of the Sugar Trust-stock are well remembered. The manipulations in the market of 1800 did much to demoralize general scatt ment and help a hear clique which was working against legitimate properties. The rise to more than 120 was followed by a crash when the "insiders" had unloaded on their dupes, and the managers of the trust escaped legal trouble only by throwing the North River Refinery into the hands of a receiver, and taking refuge in the swamps of New-Jersey law by incorporating a company which took over the constituent refineries of the trust

The "water" in the Sugar Trust is of common re pute, and hence it is suggestive of the old methods which had been condemned by public opinion to find that the second year of the "company's" (ex-trust's) ex-Istence is to be begun with so tremendous an addition to the capitalization as $25,000,000.

It was in Jersey City, of deeds too well-famed in Wall Street listory, that the annual meeting of the American Sugar Refining Company was held, with the result of authorizing this extraordinary measure. secretary submitted a statement to the effect that the board of directors had decided to Issue $25,000,000 new stock, to be divided equally into preferred and common shares, provided the written consent of two-thirds of the stockholders was obtained. It was explained that it had been deemed necessary to ask for this increase of capital to enable the company to erect new buildings and generally to increase its business facilities. The stock was to be issued at par in cash or for new property. Colonel J. C. Reiff, a stockholder, strive to have the requirement of a "threefourths' vote" adopted. John E. Parsons, counsel of the company, declared that this was not necessary, and after discussion the resolution was carried without

The reclassification of the board of directors was recently decided upon, and to carry out the programme Theodore A. Havemeyer and J. B. Thomas were reelected. The end of the fiscal year was changed from December 31 to November 30 in order to facilitate the work of the officers.

The trensurer's report showed net savings for the year ended December 31, 1891, to be $5,073,002; de-ducting the semi-annual dividends to stockholders of $3,750,000 leaves a surplus of $1,323,002 "reserved for contingencies." The report says:

"There have been issued, in accordance with the "There have been issued, in accordance with the in stock and bonds; $1,723,701 95 in real estate in mutherity conferred by the stockholders, $10,000,000 Brooklyn and Chicago, which yielded 5 1 2 per cent 6 per cent bonds, none of which, however, have been disposed of up to this time. Two thousand five hun-dred and sixty of these bonds have been lodged, in acment, with the receivers pending the completion of the dissolution proceedings of the old corporations in The decree of the court dissolving these corporations has been granted, and the bond on be returned to the treasury of the company." It is undershood that the American Sugar Reining Company of California has been leased by the Western Sugar Reining Company, the stock of which is half owned by the American Company Last. It could not be learned at the meeting whether this transaction or any deal with the Eastern interests of Claus Spreckels was to figure as a part excuse for the deluge of new stock which the directors have been authorized to issue.

REVISING THE CONFESSION OF FAITH.

THE QUESTION OF FORE-ORDINATION BOTHERS THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S COMMITTEE.

Without wasting much time in preliminaries, the the revisers were augmented by the arrival of Edward R. Burkhalter, and when ex-Senator S. J. R. McMillan, of St. Paul, S. J. Niccols, of St. Louis, and William Alexander, of san Francisco, reach the city to-day the whole committee will be present.

The session began at 9:30 o'clock. The committee

The first two chapters were passed without any important differences of opinion, and the committee decided to make no changes to the version they had recommendations of the presbyteries were few. The tenets of the Presovierian Church as expressed in the two chapters "Of the Holy Scripture" and "Of God and the Holy Trinity ' will receive no further attention for the present.

The name of Dr. Brings was once mentioned, but the chairman, the Rev. Dr. Roberts, decided that the affairs of the Union Theological Seminary and no connection with the work of the committee.

It was the middle of the afternoon when the ministers and laymen took up Chapter 3, entitled "Of God's Eternal Decrees." Section 3 of this chapter called forth an earnest discussion, and in deference to the recommendations of the majority of the Presbyteries, and of the committee, two changes were made In the future, if the work of the committee stands the fire of the General Assembly, Pre-hyterians will read in their Confession not that "God hath pre-destinated some of mankind to life," but that he has predestinated "an innumerable multitude of mankind." The new version may read that this was done "not instead of "without any foresight," etc.

The heynote of the discussion was sounded when Section 7 of the old version was taken up. It contains the doctrine of preterition, about which so much has been said and written. There are three distinct parties in the committee, with regard to this in portant section. The first wishes to wipe the section from the book, the second indorses the section as given In the first report of the committee, and a third party wishes to retain the wording of the old Conbers of the committee belong to either the first or second party, and several take the radical position of leaving the section without any revision. The recommendations of the 216 Prestyleries are con-flicting. The debate in the committee will continue for a day or so behind closed doors.

TO AID DESTITUTE VETERANS.

This city recently appropriated $10,000 for the relief of the veterans of the Civil War (Army or Navy). This fund was placed in the hands of the Commb sloners of Charities and Correction to dispose of. The Commissioners held a conference yesterday at their offices with a committee of commanders appointed by a majority of the G. A. R. posts of the city, for the purpose of deciding upon the proper method of dis-tributing the fund. Twenty-nine out of fifty-two 6 and

Army posts were represented at the conference.

After consideration of the law of the State with reference to such funds it was decided that the fund should be distributed through the commanders and There will be a meeting next Sunday at Essex Market of the Commanders and Quartermasters' Association of the posts of the city for the purpose of apportioning the $10,000 among the fifty-two posts of the city. This is the first appropriation of the sort that has ever been made by the city of New-York, though similar appropriations have been made in other coun-ties.

QUININE TOO MUCH FOR THIS POLICEMAN. Policeman Thomas Coleman, of the West Thirtyseventh-st. station-house, who assaulted John Kelly, nineteen years old, and Maggie Cox, fifteen years old, at Broadway and Forty-ninth-st., on Tuesday night, was arraigned in Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday on two charges of assault. Policeman Coleman has been on the sick list for four days. He was in citizen's dress on Tuesday night walking down Bread-way. At Fifticth-st. he attacked Kelly, striking him in the face and knocking him down. At Forty-ninth-st. Coleman slapped Maggie Cox in the face and Patrick Cox, the girl's father, seized Coleman, but the latter broke away from him, but was arrested. HOW OLIVIER PAIN DIED.

THE AUSTRIAN MONK'S VERSION DENIED-TESTI-MONY OF THE ORIENTALIST SELIKOVITSCH.

Recent dispatches have furnished a summary of the narra ive of Father Ohrnwalder in regard to the incidents which occurred during the nine years of his capacity in the Mabdist dominions, from which he has just e-caped. This narrative is highly inter esting, but one of its statements has been contradicted by "L'Intransigeant," of Paris, the political organ the famous pamphleteer. "L'Intransigeant" must have been correctly informed relative to the fate of quivier Pain, who had joined, in the character of a reporter for a Paris paper, the unfortunate expedition led by General Wolceley in the Soudan.

"According to the Austrian monk, Ohrnwa'der, says Rochefort's paper, "O ivier Pain had been car ried a pri-oner, after the capture of El Obeid, in th direction of Khartoum. During the voyage feve attacked our unfortunate friend, who, having fallen the native escort. The version of the death of Olivie train, through an attack of lever, was circulated, some seven years ago, by two Italian missionaries, is garo noni; but they did not say that our dear and an slonaries, who only spoke from hearsay, confined them-selves to the report that Ohvier Pain, weakened by fever and fatigue, had fellen from his camel, and had expired alongside the road. His body had been afterward buried under a hill of sand and stones, ere ted by the other European prisoners, anxious to protect his mortal remains against the jackals and vultures.

Such was the harrative of the Italian mission aries, and it was credited burriedly by all those who had an interest that no serious haquest apon our friend's death should be epened, thus revealing some heavy responsibilities. Fas this official version was denied a long while ago by an eye stiness whose as sertions cannot be seriously disputed, our readers have not forgotten the communications, so grave and to precise, addressed to us on that singled by M. sellaovitsch, a distinguished Orlentalist, who was in-Selfaovitsch, a distinguished Orientalist, who was in duced, by his desire to make researches relative to the Nabian dialect and ideroglyphs, to follow the state of the English army in the Sendian, with the function of interpreter and translator. It follows from the testimony of M. Selfaovitsch, an eye-witness, that a price had been set on the head of Olwier Pain by the chiefs of General Wolseley's army. Our poor friend was tracked and arrested by their emissaries, and finally shot down. The Bovery branch of the Young Men's Christian Association celebrated its aventieth soniversary lest night with appropriate exercises. J. Frederick Talcott, the the address. The annual report of the scretter showed that during the last year the branch had provided 70,464 meats, 17,010 lodgings, 1,202 positions for men out of employment, and 616 garments. In this time twenty-four young men had joined churches in this city. The gree need now is funds to carry on the relief work.

IT COSTS A GOOD DEAL TO TRAIN NURSES.

The annual report of Mary de Witt Cuyler, secre that the calls for private nurses last year were 1,419 general calls the attention of the public to the great is being done by the institution and its graduates I Arring the year 1891 there were 1,721 applicants for admission to the school. Of this number, forty-one only were accept d, and eleven of these failed on the probation month. The school accommodates staty-two nurses and is always filled to its full capacity. During the year lectures were given by Harman Biggs, on diseases; by Dr. Jaspar Garmony, on anatomy and emergencies; Robert Wylle, on obstetrics, and by Dr. Sarah Post, on massage and electricity.

Contributions other than the annual subscriptions were received from Mrs. H. A. C. Taylor, $200 $100 each from Mrs. R. T. Auchmuty, Mrs. William B. Isham. Morris K. Jesup. Mrs. Morris K. Jesup. Mrs. George Lewis, D. O. Mills, Mrs. W. Church Mrs. George Lewis, D. O. Mills, Mrs. W. Church Osborn, Mrs. J. W. Finchot, Mrs. Jonathan Sturg's and Frederick Sturges. Other gifts to the school, in some from $10 to $50, aggregate $415. Attention is call of to the pressing need of a finid to relieve sick, aged or disabled miness, similar in alms and scope to the Benevolent Final catabilished in London by the efforts and contributions of Junius S. Mogram. The treasurer, George Montagne, in his report shows that the expenses of the school have not been met from the regular sources of income. But a legacy of $4,750 from Julius M. Noyes, added to the Investment Fund, has placed the deficiency is $1,357 at less than herelofore. The deficiency is $1,357 at less than last year. During the var 1801 subscriptions amounted to $1,385 and gifts to $1,620, Graduates of the school have recently accepted positions in hospitals in India, Japan, Camada, as well as cities in this country.
